

HMS SWIFT: LINKING THE POTTERIES TO PATAGONIA

Credited to Sergio Massaro

Credited to Marcelo Seton

Details

Event date: Monday 7 July 2008

Time: 7.30-9.30pm

Location: MC001, Millennium City Building, Wolverhampton City Campus

The story of the loss and archaeological excavation of an 18th Century British warship.

Speakers

Dr. Dolores Elkin and Professor Chris Underwood

National Institute of Anthropology, Argentina.

This lecture will bring to life the extraordinary story of HMS Swift, including her loss in 1770 off Patagonia, her discovery and subsequent archaeological research including the recovery of rare Wedgwood style pottery.

Entry

Entry to the public lecture is FREE, but places must be pre-booked with Julie Hayward:

Email: j.hayward@wlv.ac.uk

Tel: 01902 322145