

NAS Annual Conference

11th and 12th of November 2006
"Celebrating 20 years of NAS Training"

This year, the NAS Annual Conference offers you more than just a day of exiting opportunities to discuss research, review archaeological activities of active members and to exchange ideas on managing our maritime heritage...

It offers you a whole weekend dedicated to maritime archaeology and to NAS members!

This year's conference and related activities will also be a great gathering of all maritime archaeology fans.

The Master of Ceremonies will be NAS Chair George Lambrick, and we are happy to count amongst our speakers :

- Martijn Manders " The "In Situ" protection of shipwrecks in The Netherlands and beyond. Practice and Theory"
- Mark Beattie-Edwards " NAS Training. Past, Present and Future"
- Marc-André Bernier " Maritime Archaeology in Canada"
- Innes McCartney " The Holland V Submarine"
- Ole Gron " 14 feet deep. The trees fallen but still there. An account of submerged Stone Age landscapes and settlements in Denmark"
- Jon Adams " TBC"
- Jon Henderson " 'Standing up in a hammock: freshwater excavations in Scotland'"
- Kester Keighley " Underwater Photography: Results of the NAS Photographic Competition"
- Paula & Colin Martin " Sea, Land, and Air: an interdisciplinary approach to maritime landscape studies"
- The 4th Annual Adopt-a-Wreck Award Winners It's a secret- to be announced on the day

Here is our maritime week-end's plan...
