

NAS and SCAPE Conference 2016

Saturday 5th November 2016

Venue: Western Infirmary Lecture Theatre, University of Glasgow

- 9.00 - 9.30 Registration & refreshments
- 9.30 - 9.40 Welcome & opening remarks
- 9.40 - 10.30 Innes McCartney - The Wrecks of Jutland 1916: Scotland's naval legacy discovered and the current threats it faces
- 10.30 - 10.50 Richard Bates et al - What's left? Seamless mapping of prehistoric landscapes in Orkney
- 10.50 - 11.10 Nicolás Alonso Rodríguez et al - Coastal archaeology in Bañugues (1977-2015): Investigation of an archaeological site affected by sea erosion in Asturias, Spain
- 11.10 - 11.40 Break
- 11.40 - 12.00 Paula Martin - New Discoveries on the west coast of Scotland relating to the droving trade and the kelp industry
- 12.00 - 12.20 James Fitton et al - The National Coastal Change Assessment, Scotland
- 12.20 - 12.40 Allan Kilpatrick - Boom to Bust: The harbours and shipyards of the lower Clyde
- 12.40 - 13.00 José Manuel Matés Luque - What the river holds: riverscape archaeology in Bilbao, Basque Country, Spain
- 13.00 - 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 - 14.20 Sandra Henry & Mark Littlewood - The survival of Orkney's maritime wartime heritage
- 14.20 - 14.40 Andy Sherman - Seek and ye shall find: Intertidal archaeology in England and the CITIZAN project.
- 14.40 - 15.10 Joanna Hambly – The state of Scotland's Coastal Heritage: results and reflections from the Scotland's Coastal Heritage at Risk Project
- 15.10 - 15.40 Break
- 15.40 - 16.00 Paul Sharman & Julie Gibson - Prospecting for Orkney's medieval harbours and landing places
- 16.00 - 16.30 Natasha Mehler & John Preston et al - Investigating the Norse harbours of Unst, Shetland: approaches and methods from geomorphology and climatology
- 16.30 - 16.50 Jennifer Jones - Remnants in the sand: Management approaches to beached shipwreck stability in the US Eastern seaboard from Maine to Florida
- 16.50 - 17.10 Mike Belasus - German ships in the North Atlantic trade 15th to 17th century
- 17.15 - 18.15 NAS 2016 Annual General Meeting

The conference is sponsored by: Historic Environment Scotland, Dive Master Insurance, BSAC, SAA, Wessex Archaeology Scotland, 3Deep Media and ADUS Deep Ocean.

NAS and SCAPE Conference 2016

Sunday 6th November 2016

Venue: Western Infirmary Lecture Theatre, University of Glasgow

- 9.00 - 9.30 Registration & refreshments
- 9.30 - 10.00 Colin Martin - Treasure from the deep – the archaeological potential of Scotland's historic shipwrecks
- 10.00 - 10.20 Sally Evans et al - Biomolecular whaling; Capturing cetacea via proteomics
- 10.20 - 10.40 John Wombell - The Loch Hourn survey
- 10.40 - 11.00 Alessandro Pasqua - Advanced geospatial techniques and archaeological methods to investigate historical rice cultivation at Wormsloe Historic Site, Georgia, USA.
- 11.00 - 11.30 Break
- 11.30 – 11.50 Joanne Porter et al - The wreck of the Rinnigal steam pinnace, Lyness, Scapa Flow, Orkney Isles: a preliminary report
- 11.50 – 12.10 Scott Timpany - Woodlands under the waves: investigating submerged forests in the Northern and Western Isles, Scotland
- 12.10 - 12.30 Jacqui Mulville et al - The Lyonesse Project: Sea level change in the Isles of Scilly
- 12.30 – 12.50 Rhiannon Philp - They left only footprints: an investigation of the prehistoric footprints at Port Eynon
- 12.50 – 13.50 Lunch
- 13.50- 14.10 Jonathan Moore and Charles Dagneau - An Update on the Archaeological Study of the Wreck of HMS Erebus in Nunavut, Canada
- 14.10 - 14.20 Presentation of NAS Awards
- 14.20 - 15.10 David Mearns & David Parham et al - The Al Hallaniyah Island Shipwreck, Oman
- 15.10 - 15.40 Break
- 15.40 - 16.00 Ole Grøn et al - Mapping submerged Stone Age sites - how do we cope with an international problem
- 16.00 - 16.20 Andrew Bicket et al - Early historic whaling in Scotland and the Anstruther Whale Fishing Company: 1757 – 1762
- 16.20 - 16.40 Alexandra Tyas - Managing coastal heritage in the Westfjords: A case Study of 19th century Norwegian whaling stations
- 16.40 - 17.00 Martin Bellamy - Unmasking an imposter: The false legacy of the Comet II engine
- 17.00 - 17.30 Final remarks and conference raffle