

NAS Part III Advanced Certificate in Foreshore and Underwater Archaeology

Part III Research & IT Module

Documentary Research

Day 1

0900 Introduction

0930 Early documentation, Elizabethan handwriting and 'secretary script'

1000 The Calendar change in the 1800's, and importance in research

1030 Break

1100 State Paper Calendars, subject matters and dates covered, also availability nationwide

1200 Lunch

1300 Newspapers, the Burney Collection, national and provincial papers, coverage and availability

1400 The East India Companies, English, Dutch, French, Danish, Portuguese, German etc. archives

1500 Royal Navy archives

1530 Break

1600 Lloyd's List and Lloyd's Register, availability

1630 Historic Manuscript Commission

1700 End

Day 2

0930 National Archive; British Library; Colindale; NMM; Guildhall Library; provincial libraries and collections

1030 Coffee

1130 National and provincial Museums and Libraries

1300 Lunch

1400 Publications and sources

1430 Starting a research project

1530 Tea

1600 General discussion and finish

1700 End